BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1893.

STEPHENSPORT.

Those on the sick list are slowly improving.

Mr. Murray Parr has been quite sick for some time.

Mr. Floyd S. E. Miller went to Cloverport Saturday.

Dr. White went to Tinsport Thursday to spend a few days with his parents.

Mrs. Flora McDonald, of Kansas, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dot Stiles.

Mr. Clark, of Cannelton, has been in town for some time having some stove barges loaded.

Messrs Kirby and Billy Blain write from Florida that they are well pleased with their new home.

Our town is looking up in spite of the dull times, as we now have lots of two public wells and another in progress.

R. A. Sheelin spent several days in Louisville last week conveying to Santa Clara and will be ready in a few days for Christmas opening and the little folks.

Miss Mary Fricker spent last Wednesday in town the guest of Mrs. Boyd McKanghan leaving next day for her home at Falm, accompanied by Mr. Jas. C. McKanghan and Mrs. Albis.

We hear from Norton's Infirmary that Miss Grace McCoy after her month's probation has been accepted as nurse, and is delighted with her work.

Also Miss Sallie Davis, another one of our girls, is spoken of as being the best nurse in the Infirmary.

We understand there was a young man in our midst a few days ago who contemplated starting a pottery here, and wanted a sample of our brick clay, but was refused the favor so went away discouraged with the idea. Now some people stand nightly in their own light, so thinks the writer.

THEY SAY

That we are to have a new dry goods store soon.

That J. D. Babbage, of Cloverport, was in town Friday.

That Mr. and Mrs. Ed Crawford are at the Smith Hotel.

That Brashers & Guthrie's business is progressing nicely. Dr. J. F. Napper is clerking for them.

That Miss Daisy Wallington, of Union Star, was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Wallington, last week.

That Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Ferry, of Cloverport, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Miller, here, and with relatives at Louisville.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

Items are very scarce.

Miss Mand Gilbert is on the sick list.

Mr. Rachel R. Lay spent a few days in Brandenburg last week.

Mr. C. M. McGlothlan, of Union Star, was in our midst Sunday.

Mr. Georgia Jamison was the guest of Miss Georgia Hawkins Sunday.

Mrs. R. A. Smith returned from a pleasant visit to relatives in Louisville last week.

The clever drummer, Ed Crawford, of New Albany, was in our midst for a day or so last week.

Our floating tabernacle has left us going south. We wish them a long and prosperous journey.

Mr. Charles Wallington is going to open a new store just above the drug store, January 1st, 1894.

Mr. Guthrie, the clever clerk for P. C. Brashers, returned to his home at Owensboro Saturday night.

Mr. Joe English, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. English, is very low with his writing. We hope he will soon recover.

Mr. O. C. Skellum is crossing the Ohio in a steamer instead of wading. We have very much to see him going at all.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

Peter Baily is just recovering from a protracted illness of typhoid fever.

Mr. Geo. Barkley went to Louisville on Sunday last to be absent several days. Mrs. James Crawford, of Louisville, spent several days last week at her old home here.

find in any public school harder working boys and girls than in our school here. Under such a leader as we have, we can expect nothing else but a prosperous school. Such we have, and our people are proud of it.

The Rev. C. F. Hartford, of the Methodist church, assisted by Rev. Robert Cox, has just closed a two-weeks meeting. No additions to the church, but we believe much good has been done, namely, in strengthening the church members and bringing about a warmer feeling among the brotherhood. We trust the truths that were so forcibly uttered may like good seed have taken root in the hearts of sinners and yet bring forth meet for the Master's use. The church is delighted with their new pastor and his family and feel much encouraged with the outlook for a prosperous and happy year.

One Lady Says

I have been troubled for years with a hacking cough. Have had many doctors and tried fifty cough cures. I grew worse all the time. I tried Parks' Cough Syrup and found immediate relief. It began at the bottom of the chest and I know it is the best cough remedy on the market. Refer any sufferer to Mrs. W. J. Fahey, Le Roy, N. Y. A. R. Fisher, drugist.

TOBINSPOET.

Weather blue.

Wind from the orchard.

Alex Ahl is a Simons (pure) Democrat from the way he talks now a days.

The meeting at the Methodist church still continues with unabated interest.

Messrs. Levi and Conrad Winchell went to Kirk Monday to visit Hiram Winchell.

We saw a young man at church, the other day, that looked "Kinder" pleasant. Do you catch out?

Ellet Haynes has moved from Patesville, Ky., to this place, where expects to work for the Pulk Bros.

There was a wedding way about at Troy about six weeks ago, and Tom Hawkins has not shaved since.

On the sick list, Robt. Tolin, Mrs. Alice Taylor, Mrs. Julia Lousch and a six year old boy of Cass Whitehead.

Conrad Winchell, of Mowena, Ill., is in on a two-weeks visit with friends and relatives. It is thought that his best friend will be found among the "Youngs."

Oh, that glorious Christmas tree. The little folks can hardly wait for the time to come. Just be patient, Christmas has never failed to come yet and it will not fail this time.

There was but about two of our farmers that attended the Institute at Rome last week. This shows how much farmers as a rule appreciate a free gift. The expenses are paid by the school and we are able to come to the light. We want to still stay in the old ruts of our fathers.

CLIFTON MILLS.

H. C. Haddock, E. J. Beachamp and Dr. Park attended court at Harlinsburg Sunday.

Mr. Taylor Bandy and wife, of Bowleyville, were visiting relatives near here last week.

It appears, that the Raymond and Lobbis correspondents are content "it." Come again, more fools more fun.

There will be a spelling match at the Clifton school house on Thursday night. All neighboring schools are invited.

Some candidates for the penitentiary relieved E. H. Parr of fifty pounds of good sweet bacon one night last week.

I am always delighted to read the Wolf Creek letter. I see so many names that are familiar to me. It brings back recollections of childhood scenes in my former home. Come again, Wolf Creek.

Let every land owner inform himself fully in regard to the recent bill against hunters regarding and have it enforced in every instance, when violated.

And the fox-hunters and thimble-headed dudes that run through people's pastures shooting their stock, and, fortunately, occasionally shooting each other, don't like it, they can change their range. We know men who claim they are not able to feed any dogs this season in account of scarcity of food.

Yet the same men can feed three or four worthless dogs. The dogs are necessities, you know.

The year '93 is drawing to a close and while the efforts of the people have not been crowned with success, yet they have much for which they should be thankful. They have a sufficiency to get them through the winter and something for the poor, and they have been blessed with good health. It seems now that there will be but few vacant chairs to welcome their Christmas greeting. No death having occurred within a radius of four miles of Clifton Mills for five months and the mortality list for even a larger radius for your post is not over five. Verily let us be thankful.

Mr. Mike Blain has an orange orchard near Lakeland, Florida, and has sent his two sons, Kirby and Will, on to make all things ready for himself and wife, who will follow them sometime during the present month.

Mr. Peter Brashers, of Owensboro, has opened up alone him here, and is turning out about 600 barrels of fine time at each lighting. He also has a grocery at the management of Dr. Napper. Peter is an energetic young man and we wish him success in his new enterprise.

Our school conducted by Prof. Cunningham and Adkison is moving on smoothly without any kind of disturbance. We venture to say you cannot

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1903.

A FULL STATEMENT.

Condition of the L. S. L. & T.
Told by the Reorganization
Committee.Net Earnings—Condition of Roadbed
—Indebtedness—Money That Must be Spent.RECOMMENDATIONS TO BOND-HOLDERS.The committee, appointed to attempt the reorganization of the Louisville, St.
Louis & Texas railroad issued the following circular:

"This company was placed in the hands of a receiver on August 7, upon request of holders of floating debt. At that time the receiver reported that he found, in addition to the interest payments due on the 1st of August, that the road had defaulted in wages due employees for May, June and July, and, in addition, had a floating debt approximately $85,489. Of this amount about $30,000, representing unpaid labor, recent supply claims and traffic balances, may be considered as probably prior to the mortgage indebtedness. The earnings since June 30, 1903, show a decrease of 50 per cent, compared with the corresponding period of last year, probably incidental to the general business depression over the country. The total indebtedness, aside from the mortgage, amounts to about $1,062,355.

"The bondholders' committee has had the property examined by an expert and has experienced railroad man who reports immediate attention is required in the matter of the reconstruction of the roadway and equipment, which has been allowed to deteriorate; the bridges and trestles and roadway particularly needing immediate attention. For each general repairs and renewals it is estimated that at least $25,000 will be required.

"Reported net earnings for the past three years average $2,744 per annum, from which should, however, be deducted $5,000 for taxes, rentals and insurance not heretofore appearing in the accounts leaving about $10,000 applicable to interest. The road is in the control of the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southeastern (the connecting line into Louisville); it is thought, may have an adverse bearing on the future earnings of the company, but it is believed that with a careful expenditure of money to put the road in proper condition, so that it may be operated at a minimum of expense, the earnings may be maintained, if not increased. The roadbed, stock and stock being largely held as collateral, it is believed that it will be impossible to secure from this source the financial assistance necessary to rehabilitate the company. Therefore, it develops upon the first mortgage bondholders to take immediate and prompt action and have the present authorized receiver appointed in their interest, in order that no receiver certificate shall be issued without their knowledge and consent and that prompt measures may be taken to rehabilitate the property.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

Some years ago we were very much subject to severe epidemic cholera morbus,
and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment,
such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhea etc., we become wary. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten us out in such cases, and always kept it about. We are writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy
in the house. For sale by A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, and Witt & Meador, Hardinsburg.

DOGWOOD RUN.

Hurrah for the merry Christmas.
Quite a crowd at the baptizing Sunday.

John Com died at his mother's Saturday night on consumption. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his death.

J. R. Hardin left home Tuesday and is it unknown where he has gone.
Johnny Melius was tried at Hawes-ville Circuit Court for gambling. He was fined $20.

Mrs. W. Barnett was thrown from a mule last week and badly hurt, but is on the mend now.

Mr. George Gabhart and his best girl went to Roseville to church last Wednesday night.

Miss Amanda Early, who has been visiting relatives near Bethlehem church has returned home.

The big meeting, opened at Roseville
last Wednesday night.

Protracted meeting began at West Point Sunday night.

Mr. Fred Young and sister, of Paten-ville, were the guests of Miss Laura Kyles, last Sunday.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

HITE'S RUN

There are several cases of chicken pox
in this neighborhood.

Mr. Lucian Chapin and family have moved to the mill at the pike.

Mrs. Tate has rented the old Tate place, where she will move soon.

L. V. Chapin's face is arrayed with smiles. It is a bouncing big girl.

Mr. Smith Waggoner and family will move back to his place here Christmas.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Hawkins' is, very sick at this writing.

There is talk of another protracted meeting being started here in Christmas week.

Master Ben DeJernett, son of Jailer DeJernett, of Hardinsburg, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Jas. Sexton, last week.

Mr. Henry Oels, one of the oldest citizens of the county, went to Clover-port on business one day last week. In spite of his advanced age, Mr. Oels is yet stout and active, and able to stand as well as many much younger men.

If some enterprising man would start a store at this place he would do a good business. Hite's Run is just half-way between Cloverport and Hardinsburg.
Five miles from each point, and a store
and postoffice is very much needed here.

For a lame back or for a pain in the side or chest, try saturating a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm
and binding it onto the affected parts.
This treatment will cure any ordinary case in one or two days. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. 50 cent bottle for sale
by A. R. Fisher, Cloverport and Witt &
Meador, Hardinsburg.

NEW BETHEL.

The health of the neighborhood is very good.

Mr. Irvin M. Barnes is on the sick list
this week.

Born, to the wife of James Lay, Nov.
26th, a girl.

We are glad to learn that Miss Cora Jordan is convalescent.

Mr. and Mrs. Mary Barnes went to Hardinsburg last Friday shopping.

Tobacco stripping is all the rage in this neighborhood at present. No sales as yet have been made.

Mr. Mary Barnes and son were in Cloverport Friday shopping and were the guests of Dr. D. Smith.

We learn there is to be a Christmas tree at the New Bethel school house
some time in Christmas week.

Santa Claus has already landed in Cloverport and left a large quantity of Christmas presents for the old and the young, for the little and the gay.

Mr. Jas. Hendrick and family have moved back to his farm near here. They are good and kind neighbors and we give them a hearty welcome in our community once more.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn admitted it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by
A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, and Witt &
Meador, Hardinsburg.

Instructions to Santa Claus.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Dec. 6.—Dear Old Claus.—As I know you and everyone reads the Breckenridge News, I thought I would tell you through its columns, if the editor would be kind enough to publish it, what I want for X-mas. I am a little 7-year-old girl with the prettiest black eyes and dark hair. I am learning my books at home and I want a second reader and mental arithmetic, also some candy, oranges and nuts and a nice pair of overcoats. Now, dear Old Christmas, if you will be so kind as to bring me these,
I will thank you very much.

Your little friend,
EDDIE L. BARNHAM.

MOOLEYVILLE.

Miss Lizzie Warren was out shopping
last week.

Miss Sadie Hayden was in town shopping last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cunningham are on the sick list this week.

Mrs. V. J. Severs was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Dyer, last week.

Miss Alma Nichols is visiting her sister Mrs. Vessels, of Owensboro this week.

Mr. Frank Barnes was the guest of our kind P. M. last week. Guess he wanted a love letter.

Mr. Byron Landry, of New Amsterdam,
Ind., was the guest of his sister, Mrs.
Ellen Stiff last week.

"C. C. C. Certain Corn Cure"
removes corns, warts, bunions, moles and callouses. Warning: Beware of cheap imitations.
In every bottle. Take no other.

Mr. Gray Burch is teaching a very interesting and successful school. Patrons and pupils are all well pleased with his work.

Mr. R. L. Smith, the hunting business merchant of Mt. Pleasant, Tenn., was the guest of his good friend, Miss Ella Parr,
last week.

Measles, E. Egart, P. and Tom Stiff are beginning in quite a supply of wool. Don't know what they mean—old yee, Xmas will soon be here.

Mr. Richard Smith, of Wolf Creek, the great hoop-bay, was recently among friends here. We love to see those "fat men" come around. They always have the dollars.

Your humble correspondent was in Concordia last week and was told that Miss Frankie Conway is teaching the best school that has been taught there for ten years.

CHRISTMAS GOODS!

WHY TO

KAYE & HOBEN'S

You can't afford to miss this offer, when you think of every $20.00 cash purchaser on SATUR-DAY, DECEMBER 23d, getting a Watch or Chain. This is no guessing or chance work. It is an absolute fact. Our store is always rushed with buyers. So rub the dust out of your eyes. Hurry up and don't stop till you come to our store and get one of our Ladies'

Cloaks and Overcoats

Which we will close on that day, along with our immense line of Christmas Goods. Bring your little ones. We have something for them all. It would require a larger volume than Webster's Unabridged to contain all the good things and prices we have for you this week.

But however, we will quote a few prices. Some people think we steal our goods, and may be we do, which we can well afford if you pay the fine.

SO HERE WE GO!

Now don't read this and say it is all stuff, it is facts. Examine test our advertising statements, if you do, you will be benefited.
You will find our doors swinging on welcome hinges to everybody.
Remember our Overcoats and Cloaks. They must go. Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, we are your friends,

KAYE & HOBEN,

HARDINSBURG, KY.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.
WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1893.
A FULL STATEMENT.
Condition of the L. St. L. & T.
Told by the Reorganization Committee.
Net Earnings—Condition of Roadbed
—Indebtedness—Money That Must be Spent.
RECOMMENDATIONS TO BOND-HOLDERS.

The committee, appointed to attempt the reorganization of the Louisville, St. Louis & Texas railroad since the following circular:

"The company was placed in the hands of a receiver on August 7, upon request of holders of floating debt. At that time the receiver reported that he found, in addition to the question of the mortgage on the lot of land, that the road had defaulted in wages due employees for May, June and July, and, in addition, had a floating debt of approximately $95,480. Of this amount about $300,000, representing unpaid labor, recent supply claims and traffic expenses, may be considered as probably prior to the mortgage indebtedness. The earnings since June 30, 1893, show a decrease of 20 per cent, compared with the corresponding period of last year, probably incidental to the general business depression over the country. The total indebtedness, aside from the mortgage, amounts to about $1,082,355.

"The bondholders' committee has had the property examined by an expert and experienced railroad man who reports immediate attention is required in the matter of the reconstruction of the road and equipment, which has been allowed to deteriorate; the bridges and tracks and sub-way particularly needing immediate attention. For much general repairs and renewals it is estimated that at least $25,000 will be required.

"Reported net earnings for the past three years average $217,441 per annum, from which should, however, be deducted $35,500 for taxes, rent and insurance not heretofore appearing in the accounts leaving about $180,000 applicable to interest. The recent change in the control of the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern (its connecting line into Louisville), it is thought, may have an adverse bearing on the future earnings of the company, but it is believed that with a careful expenditure of money to put the road in proper condition, so that it may be operated at a minimum of expense, the earnings may be maintained, if not increased. The increased mortgage and stock being largely held as collateral, it is believed that it will be impossible to secure from the stockholders financial assistance necessary to rehabilitate the company. Therefore, it devolves upon the first mortgage bondholders to take immediate and prompt action and have the present or another receiver appointed in their interest, in order that no further certificate shall be issued without their knowledge and consent and that prompt measures may be taken to rehabilitate the property.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

From the Toy Box.
Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus, and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually proceed that ailment, such as sickness of the stomach, diarrhoea, we become wary. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always kept it about. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, and Witt & Meador, Hardinsburg.

DOGWOOD RUN.

Hurrah for the merry Christmas. Quite a crowd at the baptizing Sunday.
John Coon died at his mother's Saturday night of consumption. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his death.
J. R. Hardin left home Tuesday and it is unknown where he has gone.
Johnny Nichols was tried at Haverly Circuit Court for gambling. He was fined $20.

Mrs. W. Barnett was thrown from a mule last week and badly hurt, but is on the mend now.

Mr. George (Gibbard) and his best girl went to Roseville to church last Wednesday night.

Miss Annella Early, who has been visiting relative near Bethlehem church has returned home.

The big meeting closed at West Point Sunday night.

Mr. Fred Young and sister, of Patienceville, were the guests of Miss Laura Lyons, last Sunday.

The Globe-Democrat Free.
Any reader of this paper can get the St. Louis Globe-Democrat free. Read the offer on another page, and take advantage of it at once. The Weekly Globe-Democrat is now issued in semi-weekly sections, eight pages each Tuesday and Friday, sixteen pages each week, making it practically a Semi-Weekly paper yet the price remains only one dollar a year. In politics, it is strictly Republican, but it gives all the news, and is absolutely indispensable to the farmer, merchant, or professional man who can not find time to read a large daily paper, and yet desires to keep promptly thoroughly posted. Sample Copies will be sent free on application to Globe Printing Co., St. Louis, Mo.

HITE'S RUN

There are several cases of chicken pox in this neighborhood.

Mr. Lucian Chapin and family have moved to the mill at the place.

Mrs. Tate has rented the old Tate place, where she will move soon.

L. V. Chapin's face is grayed with smiles. It is a bouncing big girl.

Mr. Smith Waggoner and family will move back to his place here Christmas.

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hawkins', is very sick at this writing.

There is talk of another protracted meeting being started here in Christmas week.

Master Ben Deberneth, son of Jaller Deberneth, of Hardinsburg, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Jas. Seaton, last week.

Mr. Henry Oshe, one of the oldest citizens of the county, went to Cloverport on business one day last week. In spite of his advanced age, Mr. Oshe is very stout and active, and able to stand as much as many much younger men.

If some enterprising man would start a store at this place he would do a good business. Hite's Run is just half-way between Cloverport and Hardinsburg, five miles from each point, and a store and postoffice is very much needed here.

For a lame back or for a pain in the side or chest, try saturating a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and binding it onto the affected parts. This treatment will cure any ordinary case in one or two days. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. 50 cent bottle for sale by A. R. Fisher, Cloverport and Witt & Meador, Hardinsburg.

NEW BETHEL.

The health of the neighborhood is very good.

Mr. Irvin M. Barnes is on the sick list this week.

Miss Alice Mitchell is visiting her sister Mrs. Frank Buren on the sick list.

We are glad to learn that Miss Cora Jordan is convalescent.

Mr. and Mrs. Mary Barnes went to Hardinsburg last Friday shopping.

Tobacco stripping is all the rage in this neighborhood at present. No sales as yet have been made.

Mrs. Mary Barnes and son were in Cloverport Friday shopping and were the guests of Mrs. Dr. Smith.

We learn there is to be a Christmas tree at the New Bethel school house some time in Christmas week.

Santa Claus has already landed in Cloverport and left a large quantity of Christmas presents for the old and the young, for the blithe and gay.

Mr. Jas. Hendrick and family have moved back to his farm near here. They are good and kind neighbors and we give them a hearty welcome in our community once more.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother sincerely remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her last crop, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by A. R. Fisher, Cloverport, and Witt & Meador, Hardinsburg.

LORDSBURG, KY., Dec. 6.—Dear Old Christmas—As I know you and everyone reads the Breckensville News, I thought I would tell you through its columns, if the editor would be kind enough to publish it, what I want for X-mas. I am a little 7-year-old girl with the prettiest black eyes and dark hair. I am learning my books at home and I want a second reader and mental arithmetic, also some candy, oranges and nuts and a nice pair of overalls. Now, dear Old Christmas, if you will be so kind as to bring me these, I will thank you very much.

Your little friend,
EDITH L. BARNES.

MOOREVILLE.

Miss Lizzie Warren was out shopping last week.

Miss Sallie Hayden was in town shopping last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cunningham are on the sick list this week.

Mrs. V. J. Severs was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Pary, last week.

Miss Alice Mitchell is visiting her sister Mrs. Frank Buren on the sick list.

Mr. Frank Buren was the guest of our kind P. M. last week. Guess he wanted a new letter.
